when the jet plane he was piloting crashed near Pitkin,
Calif., will be conducted at 3 p.m.
from the Drawing Room of the Ellis-Orson Mortuary.
Rev. Robert L. Benefield of the Community Methodist Church will officiate. Committal services will be at Sunset View Cemetery.

May, son of Mr. and Mrs.
May, of 966 Kains Avenue,
was killed during a routine
flight.

Force officials said that Lt.
May and two other pilots were enroute to Kelly Field at San Antonio, Texas, from Elgin Air Force
Station, La., officials said.

May's body was found near Pitkin, La., some 20 miles from where his plane was located.
They were flying F84
jets.

May entered the Air Force in 1942
after graduating from Albany High School where he played on the football team.

May's widow, and a daughter,

sister, Robert, both of Albany.
He was the grandson of Mrs. Ida
May, of Madera; George E.
May, of Merced, and Mrs. May,

School Board Hires Eight New Teachers

The Albany Board of Education this week hired eight new teachers for the coming year to fill vacancies created by resignations, according to Clifford C. Lockhart, president.

Named for the high school departments were Roger W. Smith, commercial subjects, and Phillip F. Elwood, social studies. Both will graduate from University of California in June.

Teachers to be assigned to one of the elementary schools include Miss Jean M. Wood, of 1556 Marin Ave., a June candidate for graduation at San Francisco State College; Miss Margaret Plosser, Miss Betty Jo Caywood, Miss Evelyn Joan Randolph, Miss Meriel C. Harpham and Miss Edna M. Finger.

Two resignations were accepted by the Board. They were Paul D. Nathan, head of the English department since 1936; who is retiring; and Wilfred R. Treacy, instructor of commercial studies since 1935.

Councilman John C. Longaker was presented to the Board by Mayor Frank C. Graeber. Longaker is the City Council's appointive member on the Board.

Codornices Mothers To Award Doll House

A completely furnished doll house, including such details as curtains, kitchenware, upholstered couches and rugs will be given away to some lucky ticket holder 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Codornices Community Center.

The Codornices Coop Nursery Mothers' Club is sponsoring the benefit event in order to raise funds for the purchase of nursery equipment.

Tickets are 25 cents and are available from Mrs. Marie Kishinski, of 849 Riley Ave. The winner does not have to be present to win.

H. O. Rogers Opens New Realty Office

Experienced in all types of loans and appraisal work, Rogers has been associated with the C. H. Eccleston Co. in Albany for the past five years.

During his many years in the realty business, he has established personal contacts with leading bank officials, building and loan companies, insurance representatives, along with many private lenders.

Rogers and his wife, Adele, have resided in Albany for the past nine years at 1360 Marin Avenue. They have a son attending Cal. Poly. at San Luis Obispo, where he is majoring in architectural engineering.

Manager Forum Slated for Wed.

The "pros" and "cons" of the city manager form of government will be discussed at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Vista Primary School, 720 Jackson street, in a meeting sponsored by City Manager League of Albany.

The aim of the meeting is to inform residents of both sides of the issue which will be voted on at the June 6 election.

Speaking in favor of the council-manager government will be City Manager Ed Howell of El Cerrito. The opposition's side will be presented by Mrs. Elizabeth Bechtel, newly named member of the Albany Civil Service Commission.

Applicants File for Amateur Show

Applications were flowing into Legion headquarters this week from talented young artists who will compete in the Legion's preliminary amateur show 8 p.m. Monday at the Veterans' Memorial Building. Today is deadline for entering.

Through the efforts of Dean "Budda" Maddox of Radio Station KFRC, Albany Post has secured the services of Howard Eastwood, staff pianist of KFRC, to accompany amateurs appearing on the Monday night show.

Eastwood will also appear here Friday when Maddox presents an evening of entertainment for the Post. Three top winners selected by judges Monday evening will appear on Maddox's show Friday night at the Memorial Building, along with an outstanding list of professional talent.

Serving as judges Monday evening will be Del Courtney, Mrs. Janet O'Keefe, Armin Wegner and Mayor Frank C. Graeber.

The public is invited to attend free Monday night, but a 50 cent admission will be charged Friday.

SOROPTIMIST SCRIBBLINGS

With the "Soroptimist Varieties of 1950" now in the past, it was back to the same old stand Wednesday, which was our regular business meeting.

There wasn't a great deal that can be told... Fines were rampant for those arriving late... Janet O'Keefe on the radio... and for practically anything.

The gift of the day, given by Bea Raymond, was won by Myrtle Moncrief. Hilda Granholt was back after a long absence, during which time she was missed.

The whole club was in sort of a relaxed mood after the hyper-tension of the past few weeks preceding the Variety Show. Apropos of the show... Our grateful appreciation to each club and each individual who appeared on the stage... The same to the Times, who gave us so much publicity... The Community Orchestra deserves a special word of gratitude... And we love each one of us who did so much—committees and members.

We'll let you know how much money we made when we get it all counted. We all concur in the feeling that it was well worth while, and hope we can stage a repeat next year.

Thomas Campaigners Meet Monday

Friends and supporters of Gartner S. Thomas, candidate for Alameda County Superior Court Judge, plete campaign organization. All wishing to add their support are welcome to attend.

Thomas is well known locally as an able attorney and for his active interest in community affairs and organizations. He has maintained his office here since admission to the bar in 1936, and is well acquainted with Superior Court procedure.

The candidate is the only Albany resident competing for the Superior Court bench. He feels that Albany should be represented and has filed his candidacy for office No. 5, the position Judge Harris is retiring from after 45 years of service.

As an Albany resident, Thomas hopes to receive support from every voter in the City. He is planning an active campaign throughout the County and promises solid competition to 10 other candidates for this same post.

Cornell Property Offered To City For New Library

Councilwoman Mrs. Kathie Zahn won a long-awaited victory Monday night when Albany City Councilmen unanimously resolved to annex Albany to the Alameda County Mosquito Abatement District, a project she has worked on for the past six years.

During the two-and-one-half hour business session, motion to join the mosquito control service was made by Mrs. Zahn, on recommendations of Dr. Robert McMahon, Albany health officer.

Councilman Jerome Blank requested figures on the cost to taxpayers. Mrs. Zahn answered that it would cost .016 per $100 assessed valuation.

Councilman Blank estimated that it would cost property owners 32 cents a year on an average, basing his figures on the $2000 as the average assessed valuation of an Albany home.

Mrs. Zahn pointed out that Albany was the only city in the county not in the district.

A motion made by Councilman Blank to abolish the position of city maintenance mechanic was approved by the Council.

The position, which pays $350 per month, has been held since May, 1945, by Raymond Mosher. The post will be abolished effective July 1st.

Councilman Blank said the move was in the interest of economy and harmony, and was made on recommendations of City Engineer E. A. Tarr.

Blank also recommended that all heavy repair work be done on bids, similar to the system now used by El Cerrito.

Postponed a week for further study was an ordinance suggested by Councilman John Longaker to tax all pin ball machines $10 a year. He said that such a tax would help the police chief in that "who owns the machines and where they are operated."

Councilman Raymond Cleary said that he felt there should not be discrimination in taxing, that a business tax should be levied against "everybody" rather than the owners of pin ball machines.

Another proposal made by Mrs. Zahn was to have the free telephone lines used by the police chief turned over to the city libraries "which needed them." No action was taken on the measure.

Councilman Longaker pointed out that Fire Chief Fred Pimental and Police Sgt. Frank Davis also had free phone service and said that it seemed to be a custom throughout the Bay Area for police and fire heads.

Longaker also asked City Attorney Edward Plotner to study the possibility of Albany obtaining the 2 per cent franchise from the telephone company which the City Charter call for.

He said that Berkeley received $35,000 a year from its 1 per cent (Continued on page six)

Macabees Roll Marin Dads 4-0

Albany Macabees scored 4 to 0, over the Marin Dads Sunday at Memorial Park in the Albany Recreation Department Softball League. Going into the seventh inning with no score, the Macabees came to life and scored four runs for a victory.

In the second game, Codornices defeated the Cerrito Civic Club 5 to 2.

The Gillyets scored 3 to 2 over the El Dorado Oil in the opener played at Codornices. The Oilers led up until the last of the sixth when Chuck Rosenquist got off to a bad start. With his two walks and a few errors by his teammates, the Gillyets took advantage of the breaks and turned them into runs.

Albany Jaycees had no trouble in winning a 12 to 0 victory over Albany Eagles. The Jaycees chalked up 14 hits while the Eagles managed to get only two hits. Charlie Tacharner and Jerry De-Maria were the big batsmen for the winners, each receiving three for four.

Marin PTA to Review Year at Final Meet

A surprise dramatic production with scintillating personalities well known to all Marin PTA'ers will be presented under direction of Mrs. H. E. Stone.

Kindergarten mothers will be hostesses for the afternoon.

Longaker reported to the Council that the Board of Education has offered the property on which the old Cornell School was located, valued at $40,000, to the city for the site of a new city library or recreation building. He said the Board would probably offer the property on a long term lease at $1 a year. The Council also approved a suggestion of Mrs. Zahn requesting all city department heads to attend Council meetings. The "requesting" was added after the City Attorney pointed out that the Council has no authority to require elective officials to attend the meetings.

Mayor Charles F. Graeber was the only member opposing the measure.

Councilman Longaker appointed Walter Norton, a graduate of Oregon State University, to the Civil Service Commission.
